

Scope of the Policy

The scope of the proposed Research Policy / Incentives is firstly to encourage the faculty members to focus on research and to create their interest to publish research articles in reputed national / international Journals with higher impact factor. Secondly, in addition to their existing teaching responsibilities, they will be motivated to write books/ chapters/ monograph for publication by National/ International publishers of repute. Thirdly, the proposed research policy will further promote the faculty members to put efforts to publish collaborative papers with their counterparts in institutions/ universities laboratory of repute, to submit proposal for funded projects from various funding agencies in India/ abroad and to file patent for publications/ grant and to put efforts for its commercialization.

In addition to the above points, the faculty members will be to inspire the faculty members to develop e-content as per the needs of higher education, to apply for memberships of Societies of National/ International repute. The proposed policy will also assist them to receive State/ National/ International awards/ recognitions and motivate them to attend FDPs/ Conferences/ Workshops/ STTPs etc. The faculty members will also encourage students to pursue good quality research with the help of this proposed research policy.